

RE-SHAPE

Lyrics: Ivano Gobbi

Music: Emanuele Rognoni / Luigi Bellone

1^ASTROFA

This time I wanna think alone
And make all by myself
I try to change the things
I don't believe be right for me

I feel that I belong

To places packed full of love
Before to shade afraid to blaze
In this emotion flames

Where is he confutation for my revelation?
I can hear now screams in the crowd
Or are they only chained in my fantasy?

RIT

For the time I felt weary 'bout you
Let me become something new

2^ASTROFA

Nothing can (be) born from nothing
But all must change its shape

Closed in my dreams
I've met myself
Telling to me my really will
I've cheated hard
Playing with my cards
Now is my fault to say the truth
Here is the time, melted my lies
Lost in your deep silver eyes
Sweat on your breast
I swear on my past
Waiting for your understanding

SEMANTIC

I've lost my life under your iced eyes
You freeze my pride under your iced eyes
But you're still mine
